

Climbing Wall Rules

Multi-Generational Center 1035 N. Idaho Road

M-F 4pm-8pm Saturdays/Holidays 9am-1pm

Included in membership, or daily fees apply

- Participants and their Parent/Guardian understand that the climbing wall is 28 feet in height and that there are risks involved with strenuous exertion as part of this activity, including serious injury or even death.
- Patrons must be at least 5 years old and 40 pounds to be allowed to climb.
- Only climbing shoes, hiking boots and athletic shoes are allowed for climbing.
- Wait for staff member to attach and detach your harness/carabineer
- The following are strictly prohibited:
 - Bouldering
 - Chalk
 - Swinging on ropes
 - Food or drink in pit area
 - Chewing gum
 - Foul or abusive language
- Patrons will be given 1 warning. Failure to follow rules will result in loss of Climbing Wall privileges.
- Expecting mothers, those with heart, back, or neck problems should not climb.

Please check with the front desk for days and times when the rock wall is operational.